APPROVED FOR RELEASE 2025 UNDER EXECUTIVE ORDER 14176

Diagnosis: , with features; however probably generally more acceptable: with .

Intellectual Level:
High intellectual potential not properly utilized, due to severe . Irregulra M educational level; partly high, partly low. Sone aspects of his and particularly his are , while others are and more or less .
Can think clearly and logically within the framework of his , and also can plan and act accordingly. In general, thinking which intermittently gets . - A very , constantly active and and his . - His constantly at work; .
Seems to run smoothly for a certain time and which, for him.

General Abilities: Also has practical abilities and skills which are not properly utilized. No specialized training in any area, but would have various potentials, if not . Learns and understands quickly, but only what fits into his personal frame of reference. Then he is able to inform himself well. The same goes for his astute gift of observation; notices only what he wants to see and how he wants to see it. - Quite intuitive; senses instinctively implications of happenings around him, although he may . - He has some difficulties in , except on those things with which he is emotionally involved. Tends to get otherwise, but knows how to hide this. - Has a .

Emotional-Temperamental Aspects: with a fairly good . Can manage to etc. Full of for which he tries to find an outlet. -

Social Aspects. Apparently does not have any (including their representatives) he encounters. Perhaps the only environment, and in this context, communism may appear as an ideal solution, but his concepts about this are also vague. - representative for everything . Without any and demands; . - And probably would do this again , -

Behavioral Aspects: Contradictory behavior: Behind a customary composed facade, a makeup. Intermittent or .

Behavioral Aspects: Innately [redacted]. Completely [redacted], as far as others are concerned. [redacted]. Can appear [redacted], but can become [redacted], as soon as he imagines he is not [redacted]. Surface [redacted] is one of his means to protect himself. Much more [redacted] than noticeable by casual observer. Could go to [redacted]. After an [redacted], he could have a [redacted]. - Is constantly [redacted].

In legal terms: [redacted]

TSH
[illegible]. June 12, 1968.